

Grandmother's Bracelet in Pearls

Experience Needed: None, basic beginner's jewelry making skills will be used, but you will learn these in class.

Supplies Needed: All supplies will be provided in class. But Please Bring a bath hand towel or kitchen towel to work on so your beads won't roll.

At the end of class, you will have a grandmother's birthstone pearl bracelet with colored pearls for the 12 months and the remainder plain white pearls using elastic or wire and clasp.

Cost: $10.00

Class Size: 1 to 12

Class Length: 2 hours

Overview: Participants will choose the color of pearls they will need for the birth month of each of their grandchildren, sparkly dividers and simple jewelry findings in either gold or silver; or elastic which ever they would prefer. The remainder of the bracelet will be white pearls.

Lynn Clugston

I have been married to Ken Clugston going on 53 years. We have been doing camping of some kind most of our lives. In 2007 we got our first motorhome and have been loving motor homing ever since. We belong to the following RV groups: Rally in the Pasture, FMC Motor Coach Owners Club, and Gateway Getaways. I enjoy doing all kinds of crafts, crocheting, jewelry making, anything using silk flowers, and I am willing to try about anything.
