

FLY TYING..... ON THE MOVE.....

Either in a Motorhome or a Camper, there's always room to tie!

Wm. Howard Malpass, owner/operator of the GRAY WOLF FLY SHOP, LLC., since 2010 in Shreveport, Louisiana.

After retiring from the U. S. A. F. as a disabled Vietnam Veteran in 1976, He pursued a continuation of his military carrier and opened a Private Investigation Company in Shreveport, LA. With offices in Texas, Louisiana and England, he traveled quite a lot! Falling in loving the area, he traveled the beautiful country sides of Bristol, England. This is where he and an old friend joined in fly-fishing all over Great Briton, Wales and Scotland. Soon he included Belgium, Germany, Austria and Luxemburg.

As a Master Fly Tier, Howard enjoys teaching not only Casting but Fly Tying both to the young and older ladies and gentlemen. With thousands of flies to pick from, you look at the area of the country you are fishing, as well as the rivers, and the time of the season, all this brings about many of the designs which are the main stay of the sport!

While traveling in his 33' Cardinal 5th wheel trailer, he brings his fly bench and enough tying materials to start a small fly shop!

Friday 9 am – 11 am
Cattlemen's Kitchen & Steak House
Cost $10
Class size 1 – 18 people

Class Notes:

We will be giving lessons on Tying four different flies. I will have all the materials needed, the Vice, thread, hooks, etc.

1. Green Woollybugger
2. Cristal Prince
3. Bob Clouser "Ultra"
4. March Brown

These four flies may be used for Bass, Brown Trout, Rainbow Trout, Brook Trout and Cutthroat Trout. The Clouser may also be used for Sand Trout and Redfish (saltwater). The flies are very easy to tie, and I will be more than happy to spend the time with you showing you just how it works. If you have not tied in a while, don't worry.....sit down and enjoy renewing!

When you come to the Shreveport, LA area, stop in at the Gray Wolf Fly Shop at Pierremont and Southern Avenue, just off I-49. Come in for a cup of coffee and relax!
